Telephones Go on "Emergency" Basis as Strike Starts

Supervisors and Officials Keep Boards Open in Central Offices

Monday was not only wash day in Antioch; it was also, commencing at 6 a. m., no-idle-gossip-over-the-phone day, as local telephone operators joined with others throughout the state in Illinois' first telephone strike.

Service here, as in other Illinois communities, was on an "emergency only" basis, with supervisors and company officials manning switchboards to take care of important calls.

Linemen and repair crews remained on the job, making all necessary repairs outside of offices, but not crossing picket lines to enter the telephone offices to do work there.

Throughout the state, about 8,700 operators are affected by the strike, which was called by vote late last week when the Illinois Telephone Traffic union decided to stand by its original request for a raise of $6.00 per week for all employees, instead of accepting the War Labor Board's recommendation of a $4.00 raise.

The post office is operating through Antioch with delivery to Benet Lake being effected through Route 2 of the Antioch post office. Father Clement Roney, is the postmaster.

Cutter is Finally Moved Out for Gasoline Buggy; Garage Replaces Barn

The barn on the Somerville property, which was built by Henry Engle more than half a century ago, was torn down early this week and the lumber was salvaged by a North Chicago wrecking company.

Construction of the building, which was located in the rear of the Pedersen bakery, dated back to the time when square nails were in use. They had apparently been reinforced at later dates with nails of more modern make.

An old-time cutter was among the contents of the building.

The old Engle home, which was believed to have been one of the earliest frame buildings in Antioch, was wrecked shortly after World War I to make room for the bakery building and the building that now is occupied by the A and P store.

Mrs. Somerville plans the construction of a three-car garage in the area where the barn formerly stood.

A grass fire at the H. E. Cardiff place on Cross lake brought a call for the Antioch Fire department Sunday morning at 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Emma Allner, 82, Passes Away in Chicago

Services were held in Chicago last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Emma Allner, 82, mother of Richard D. Allner of Antioch, who passed away in that city Nov. 11.

The services were conducted at 2 p. m. in the chapel at 5501 North Ashland avenue.

T/SGT. W. C. CALHOUN RECEIVES DISCHARGE

Thirty-one combat missions to Japan, as ring gunner on a B-29, were completed by T/Sgt. W. C. Calhoun while he was stationed on Tinian Island with the 20th Army Air force.

Sgt. Calhoun, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Calhoun of Lake Villa, received his discharge from the service Nov. 15 at Fort Sheridan. He arrived back in the States Nov. 4, after nine months overseas.

He holds the Distinguished Flying cross, the Air medal three Oak Leaf clusters, and three Battle stars.

Sgt. Calhoun entered the service two and one-half years ago in Chicago, going from there to Shepard field, Tex., and later training at McCook Army Air field, Nebr.

Lt. Ted C. Larson has been made commanding officer of the U. S. Coast Guard base, Pr. 181, Port Richmond, Philadelphia. Lt. Larson, who has been in the service for nearly four years, spent three years of that time on sea duty, including the invasion of the Philippines.

Lt. James L. Jones, Randolph field, Tex., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Zion, Ill., is home on a 30-day terminal leave. He expects to receive his discharge Dec. 18, after 32 months in the service. Lt. Jones was a visitor at the News office Monday morning and expressed his thanks for having received the paper while he was away in the service.

Frederick J. Zilke, AMM 1/c, U. S. NR, has reported for duty with the Johnston island detachment of Air Transport Squadron 12, Naval Air Transport service. The squadron maintains aircraft of the far-flung Naval Air Transport service, which daily sends planes over 20,000 miles of air routes from Oakland, Calif., to Tokyo, Guadalcanal and the Philippines. Each month, for the last four months, the service's planes have been carrying more than 20,000 passengers and 125,000,000 pieces of mail, in addition to hundreds of tons of high priority cargo.

Sgt. Richard W. Chapman received his discharge from the army Nov. 11 at Camp Grant.

Pvt. James Morton, 46043329, may be addressed at Co. D, 95th Bn., IRTS 19th Regt., Camp Roberts, Calif.

Charles J. Rothers, ART 1/c, writes from San Diego, Calif., that he expects soon to receive his discharge and adds—"Thank you very much for your long and appreciated service. The papers have followed me faithfully wherever I went, and I never failed to enjoy them."

A new release from Truax field, Madison, Wis., tells of the granting of an honorable discharge to Cpl. Richard W. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis, who served in the Army Air forces for 38 months. Cpl. Davis served overseas in the European theater of operations as a bomb handler. After his return to the States, Cpl. Davis was stationed at Truax field.

Charles Larson was recently granted a discharge from the service.

Sgt. W. E. Brook is expected home from Camp Fannin, Tex.

Louis Edward Tanner, SKV 3/c, sends a reminder—"It has been several weeks since I last received a copy of the Antioch news. I have been wondering if you have discontinued sending them to the service men. We enjoy receiving them so much because they contain so much news of the other boys and that is about the only way we have of keeping track of them all."

"I am still stationed here in Wooster, O., where I am going to the Navy V-5 Refresher unit. After being out of school for four years it took a while to get back into the swing of things, but now I enjoy my studies very much. They are giving us our basic studies to prepare us for."

Seek Natural Gas Pipeline for Lake Region Communities

Antioch and Lake Villa are among the communities that would eventually receive straight natural gas in place of the mixed gas now supplied, if arrangements now being sought by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois can be carried through, it was revealed in a news release from the company which was received this week through George Joe-dicke, district superintendent.

Under an application which the company has filed with the Illinois Commerce commission, approximately 4,000 gas users in Barrington, Lake Zurich, Wauconda, Round Lake, Fox Lake, Lake Villa, Antioch, Volo, Long Lake and Ivanhoe eventually will receive straight natural gas in place of the mixed gas now supplied, Joe-dicke said.

He explained that the new natural gas supply would be obtained by connecting the present distribution mains serving the ten communities with a proposed new natural gas pipeline scheduled for construction across northern Illinois next year. Authorization for the Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America to build the new pipeline is now pending before the Federal Power commission.

"When and if the new pipeline is completed, the Public Service company will tap it at a point near Volo. If approval is granted for the project, the new natural gas supply will be made available as rapidly as manpower and materials permit—probably by late spring or summer," Joe-dicke said.

"Conversion from the present 800 B. T. U. mixed gas to 1,000 B. T. U. natural gas will substantially increase gas supplies to the ten communities for house heating and other residential uses and for possible industrial expansion."

"Under the commission application, the company will stand all expenses in connection with changing over customers' appliances for the new natural gas."

Prior to any change-over, company employees will make a house-to-house survey of customers' appliances as a first step in the conversion program."

Snow Goose is Shot Here by William Mangan

A Canadian snow goose was shot by William Mangan on Monday afternoon of last week, while he was hunting pheasants at Lake Antioch.

This is believed to be the first time in a number of years since a wild goose was shot in this area.

Mongan, a former lieutenant in the Army Air force, received his discharge from the service about two weeks ago.

Night Police Position Is Still Vacant

Single Application is Re- ceived at Meeting of Council

Only one application for the position of night policeman in Antioch was received in time for consideration at a recessed meeting of the village council Tuesday evening, although additional inquiries had been received. This application was considered, but could not be accepted because of a technicality, it was pointed out, since the applicant was under the age of 21.

The building commissioner was directed by the council to have construction on a garage being erected at the rear of the Somerville building halted until blueprints had been submitted to the council for its approval and a building permit granted. Permission had already been granted by the fire district for wrecking of a wooden barn which formerly stood on the site, and the materials for the 20 by 50 foot new building, which is to be made of cement blocks, had been approved.

A report from the Illinois Municipal league was received, and notice was taken of the fact that Albert Kroll, former coach at Antioch Township High school and now mayor of Libertyville, is listed as one of the league's vice-presidents.

To Ridge Septic Beds

The problem of removal of sludge from the village septic tanks was discussed. A report from the engineer who is drawing up plans for improvements in the sewage system was presented verbally by President George B. Bartlett. The council discussed Engineer Miller's recommendation that a potato hiller be used to ridge the gravel in the septic tank beds, in view of the possibility that the ridges would bear the weight of ice that would form above the beds, permitting seepage through the hollows between the ridges during the winter. It was voted that this process be tried this winter.

An application from Louis Bauer to close the front driveway entrance to the Hardt building and extend the Sno White ice cream store across the entire front, and to construct a new entrance at the rear of the building was discussed. It was voted to refer this matter to Village Attorney George S. McGaughey before making a final decision.

The meeting was adjourned to the call of the president.

A chimney fire at the Clarence Kufalk home on Highway 59, which brought a summons to the Antioch Fire department this morning at 6 o'clock, burned out without damages.

Antioch Boys Win 7 County Championships

Thomas E. Wilson Gold Medal is Awarded to Donald Irving

Antioch 4-H club members were presented seven medals and $305.00 in premium money at the Annual Achievement Day program held in Libertyville Saturday evening.

The coveted gold medal for the boy having the best meat animal project was presented to Donald Irving by Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago packer. Irving won seven grand championships with his Duroc-Jersey litter and placed second in the heavy-weight pen of three barrows at the Chicago Market Swine show last September.

Harland French was selected by the state committee as a project honor member in sheep production and received a gold medal from the national 4-H club committee.

Robert Kufalk and Richard Wells both received medals from the National 4-H club committee for outstanding work in garden projects. Wells was last year's county champion and Kufalk won the honor this year.

Awarded 3 Medals

The Chicago Livestock Producers annually present three medals to Lake county for beef, swine and sheep production. All three were won this year by the Antioch club—Harold Myers, for his beef project, Donald Irving in swine production and Warren Wells in mutton production.

Five youths from the Antioch club have been chosen outstanding members for Lake county. They are Donald Irving, Robert Kufalk, Harold Myers, Robert Carlson and Harland French.

Eleven from Antioch are county project honor members—Logan Lundgren, Rudolph Kacer, in dairy; Donald Irving, swine; Harold Myers, Robert Carlson, beef; Harland French, sheep; Robert Kufalk, Richard Wells, George Miller and Robert January in gardening, and Philip Burke in wild life conservation.

Victory Bond Workers Are Still Being Sought

"Volunteer workers for the Victory bond campaign in Antioch township are still badly needed," Otto S. Klass reveals, asking that all who may be able to spare some time for canvassing notify him.

"Antioch township is still lagging in the drive," he states.

"Yes, the war is over, but it will never be over for some of those in hospitals; those who will be incapacitated for the rest of their lives."

"Yes, this is the last drive, and let's put it over big. Let's finish the job—they finished theirs!"

"Volunteers for this drive are still being sought. If you will call on a few persons, that will help."

"We all are glad the war is over. Let's show it in a patriotic way. Help your country, and by so doing you are helping yourselves."

Cooperation of Rural Mail Patrons Asked

In keeping with a request from the Post Office department, the following announcement has been made by Roy I. Kufalk, Antioch postmaster:

"Postmasters and rural carriers have been requested by the postoffice department to inform the patrons of rural routes of the desirability for their cooperation to the end that mail be handled as expeditiously as possible."

"In order to render better service to the patrons of the postoffice and to facilitate the collection and dispatch of mails all first and third class mails for collection by rural carriers should have stamps affixed at the proper rate of postage."

"Also the patrons are reminded that they are required to keep clear all approaches to their mail boxes by removing obstructions which include snow. As carriers are not required to leave their vehicles to serve mail boxes delivery may be withheld temporarily until approaches are cleared."

New Oldsmobile May Be Viewed at R & J

A model of the 1946 Oldsmobile has been received by the R & J Chevrolet garage, and may be seen there on display, it is announced by Elmer Rentner. Much interest has also been shown by the public in the new Chevrolet, a model of which was placed on display last week.

The "Safety Responsibility" Law Will Have Teeth

When the new Illinois Motorists' Safety-Responsibility law goes into effect January 1, 1946, the state will at last have obtained "teeth" with which to prosecute "irresponsible" motorists.

The law, passed without a dissenting vote by the last session of the legislature, holds in substance that a motorist must either pay for the damage he incurs or lose his license to drive.

Unique in the history of Illinois law is the six months' time lapse between enactment and enforcement of the law-makers granted in the hope the people would familiarize themselves with the law's provisions.

In commenting on the popularity of the Safety-Responsibility law, John J. Nash, chairman of the Illinois Committee on Highway Safety, pointed out there are now 20 states with laws similar to Illinois' and 14 with legislation practically synonymous.

"It's the solution to the problem that has plagued law makers since city ordinances prescribed automobiles be preceded by a cyclist waving a red flag."

In detailing the law Nash pointed out there was nothing "compulsory" in the law. It was, he said, entirely possible for a person to ignore the statute with complete impunity. That could be done he pointed out, by careful driving and avoidance of accidents.

It is only when accident damages exceed $50, he went on, that the law steps in. In such case a report must be made to the Department of Public Works and Buildings at Springfield. There it is assessed and the amount of damage determined. The department makes a report to the Secretary of State, who, in turn, advises the motorists the value in cash, bond or insurance which must be posted. Failure to comply with the Secretary's directive brings automatic suspension of license and registration rights.

"There's nothing complicated in the law," Nash said, "it's simple justice: If you injure another, you either make good your injury or you cease driving. As simple as that."

Bonds, a Good—and ### Patriotic Investment

"The war is over, but peace hasn't officially been declared yet."—Perhaps those words will sum up not only the unsettled feeling which so many people have today, but the Victory Bond campaign, the material shortages, inconveniences, the appeals still coming in for housewives to continue salvaging waste kitchen fats—and, in short, the incomplete state of affairs that seems to exist today.

The efforts of individuals in promoting the general welfare are still important, even though the immediate urgency of the war has been removed.

It is still to the best interests of the individual to work for the general welfare.

In no respect does this show up more than with regard to the purchases of bonds.

Off-hand, we can think of few better "rainy day" investments, or a nicer way of doing one's country—and one's self—a good turn.

It's a Happier Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving this year will be a much happier, more light-hearted occasion in many homes of this region as well as throughout the nation.

Many homes will be made gay by the return of members of the family from service with the armed forces or from war work in other parts of the country. Others will have the anticipation of the return of members of the family circle, or will at least have been relieved of daily and hourly anxiety.

The removal of many rationing restrictions and of war time restrictions and demands on foods will also have its psychological effect. A good Thanksgiving dinner should taste much better unaccompanied by the thought that it could not be shared by someone in the family who might be inhabiting a foxhole somewhere in the combat areas, or by one who was a prisoner of war.

All-in-all, this looks to us like a much better Thanksgiving!

Seamen who have sailed for 14 months on saltwater aboard vessels of 500 gross tons in the deck or engine departments are eligible to apply for officer training.

Vos Reports Adequate Building Supplies Here

Ed F. Vos, of the Antioch Lumber and Coal company, announced today that there are adequate supplies of building materials in Antioch to meet critical demands for home and farm improvements.

Quoting a recent Gallup poll which disclosed that one out of every four families is planning to build a new home, Vos emphasized the importance of "getting remodeling and repair work done now before the rush for new houses gets under way, creating even greater demands for materials and skilled workers."

To accurately gauge the requirements of the community, Vos stated that his company was conducting a survey of construction plans. "If we know in advance the building or remodeling work that is contemplated here," he explained, "we will be able to serve the building needs of the community better." He added that a survey card had been sent to a cross-section of homeowners with the first of a series of letters interpreting the national building news in terms of the individual's plans.

Chicago and Northern Illinois

A MARKET

UNEQUALLED IN SIZE AND DIVERSITY

This area has a population of about five million.

Unlike a region which is characterized by one or two dominant types of industry, Chicago and Northern Illinois industry is highly diversified. In addition, this area is a world hub of agricultural and commercial activity. These factors combine to provide an economic balance that tends to cushion fluctuations in business.

What do we mean—industrial diversification?

There are 10,000 manufacturing plants in Chicago and Northern Illinois. They make everything from tractors to toothpaste, from abrasive wheels to X-ray equipment—a total annual production even before the war of almost 4½ billion dollars. 86% of all types of U. S. industries are represented in this area.

Why is Chicago and Northern Illinois so important in the nation's agriculture?

It is because this area is situated in the center of the rich mid-west agricultural valley, unquestionably the greatest food producing area in the world. This, in turn, has made Chicago and Northern Illinois an outstanding center for food processing and distribution.

Here is also an area that creates tremendous buying power of its own—the goods and services for living that people here want and must have.

What do we mean—tremendous buying power?

We mean, for instance, that this year the total income of people living here reached a rate of 7½ billion dollars annually, that this income is of course reflected in buying power, and that buying power created retail trade in the Chicago and Northern Illinois area exceeding 2 billion dollars in 1943. More than that is the fact that the Chicago area is an outstanding center of wholesale trade—another 5¼ billion dollar market. One building alone—the Merchandise Mart—attracts 400,000 buyers a year. These are some of the reasons why Chicago is nationally known as the "Great Central Market."

What does all this mean to you?

It means that if you are contemplating location or expansion of an industry that could benefit by participation in a market unequalled in size and diversity, the Chicago and Northern Illinois area deserves your thorough investigation. We shall be glad to assist your study of this area and all it holds for postwar industry.

Industries locating in this area have these outstanding advantages

Library News

(By Marian Rigby, Librarian)
Charles Nordhoff and Norman Hall, who wrote "Mutiny on the Bounty" and other tales of adventure have again combined their talents. "The High Barbaree" is the dramatic story of an Iowa-born pilot, adrift in the Pacific after his Catalina flying boat has been shot down.

"Most Secret," by Nevil Shute is a story of combined operations undertaken to encourage resistance in an occupied sea port in Brittany. Equipped with a deadly flame thrower, a disguised fishing boat harries the Germans in daring raids off the French coast.

Nancy Bruff's characters in "The Manatee" are violent and cruel, dominated by hatred. The scene is Nantucket about a century ago when whaling boats still sailed from New England ports.

Puerto Rico is known to most Americans only as the island where Roosevelt's Rough Riders found glory in the battle of San Juan Hill. Wenzell Brown gives us more recent information in "Dynamite on our Doorstep." Brown believes that our colonial rule in Puerto Rico has solved few of their problems. He describes slums where stark poverty, vice, and revolutionary intrigue flourish. Here, he indicates, is the starting point when America leads mankind to a better world.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Hays will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. William Bradley, Midlothian, Ill.

"This Wooster is quite the town. The liberty we get is very slight, but the town is small enough so that we have gotten to know it pretty thoroughly in the past two months. They have quite a few Amish clans that live around here. They are very good farmers, but are quite an oddity to fellows like myself who have never seen them before. They dress in black or very dark blue and look like Quakers or Puritans. They drive old black carriages drawn by horses and downtown they have a special place for them to hitch the horses. When they come into town it is usually for the day, because it takes them several hours to drive the 15 or 20 miles they have to come.

Sgt. Spear, who has served overseas in all three theaters of action and who has been in the army since 1940, states that the information booth in the Antioch post office will be open each Monday from 10 to 4 p. m. He is stationed in Waukegan, where the main recruiting office has been established in room 28 of the new postoffice building. The Waukegan office is open from Monday through Friday, from 8.30 a. m. to 5.30 p. m., and on Saturdays from 8 a. m. to 12 noon.

Interests in the Army's new enlistment program is already being shown here, Sgt. Spear stated, with Robert Onstad, 18, of Hickory Corners, as the first recruit. Onstad will enter the service Nov. 23 for an 18 months' enlistment. Men 17-34 years of age, or over 34 if they have had previous military service, may enlist for 18 months, two years or three years, Sgt. Spear states. Those signing up for the three-year period may select the branch of service and theater in which they wish to serve, the sergeant comments.

Thirty-Ninth Lake County Seal Sale Starts This Week

The Lake County Tuberculosis association's thirty-ninth annual Christmas Seal sale has been announced this week by Mabel S. McCullough, Seal Sale chairman, with the following news release:

"Tuberculosis has been called the unnecessary disease. For more than a century mankind has known its cause, its method of spread and the right way to prevent its occurrence; yet 55,000 Americans, and several million people throughout the world, died from it in 1944. Each death is a record of failure—the failure of prevention.

"There is valuable information in the 38,288 Christmas Seal Letters mailed to residents of Lake County on Nov. 19, and the Association earnestly petitions a careful study of the contents. The current campaign which started on Nov. 19th, has a goal of $40,000. Part of this money will be used for completing payment on the mobile X-ray unit which is to be dedicated here this week. Possession of this unit places Lake County in an almost unique position as one of the first communities in the country to be equipped with this newest device for the advance of public health.

"X-ray examination should be available to all in the community who need it," stated Miss Orpha L. White, RN, executive secretary of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, in speaking of the advantage of the new unit. The community should also be educated to the use of the existing facilities for diagnosis and treatment, and the patient, himself, his family, his employer, and other community members, must learn to insist upon proper preventive steps and treatment for this preventable and curable disease.

"The government's X-ray program succeeded in keeping tuberculosis out of the armed forces to a remarkable degree, according to TB authorities. In this war only one out of every 100 men was deferred because of this disability, whereas in World War I, TB was the chief source of physical deferment or discharge from the army.

"The program of the association is financed entirely through funds derived from the annual sale of Christmas Seals and other contributions made at that time. The purchase of the mobile unit was made possible through increased contributions to the annual sale last year, combined with proceeds from benefit shows by Lake County organizations. This year, in addition to Seals, Christmas Seal Bonds from $5 to $100 are being issued to complete payment on the unit, carry on the regular TB program and enlarge the program made possible by increased equipment.

"Experts believe that tuberculosis in this nation can not only be brought under control, but can be wiped out with present knowledge.

"Little America" Resort is Sold by L. J. Duda

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Duda have sold their resort, "Little America," at Klondike point, Grass lake, to a Chicago purchaser.

The new owner will take over Jan. 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Duda plan to leave then for Florida, where it has been their custom to spend the winter months.

Before taking over the resort nine years ago, "Duke" was engaged in the printing business in Chicago. He was previously employed in the telephone work.

Mr. and Mrs. Duda are planning a twentieth wedding anniversary celebration to be held at Little America on Saturday evening, Dec. 1, and are mailing out invitations this week to their many friends.

F. A. Swenson, commander, and John L. Horan represented the Antioch American Legion Post in the parade that was a highlight of the Legion convention in Chicago Tuesday evening.

New Regulations for A. P. O. Parcels Listed

New weight and size limits have been announced for parcels being sent to army personnel overseas, according to a bulletin received by Roy I. Kufalk, Antioch postmaster.

Under the new regulations, effective as of Nov. 15, "parcels not exceeding 11 pounds in weight or 42 inches in length and girth combined, containing articles requested by the addressee, may be accepted for mailing to army personnel overseas."

New Ford Proves Hit, Local Garage Informed

More than 300,000 persons placed orders for the 1946 Fords on "V-8" Day, Oct. 26, and the following day, it was disclosed by the Ford Motor company in a publicity release sent from Dearborn, Mich., to W. A. Rosing of the Antioch garage, local sales representative.

Dealers in many cities reported that showroom crowds exceeded those that saw the historic debut of the Model-A Ford in the fall of 1927, J. R. Davis, Director of Sales and Advertising, said in the dispatch sent to Rosing. The 10,000,000 who saw the Model-A, set an all-time record for crowds attending an auto presentation.

Telegrams, letters and telephone calls are bringing an avalanche of praise and acclaim to Ford headquarters, Davis said. And abandonment of car rationing plans, reports to him

"The public calls it—The Greatest Ford It Has Ever Seen—and two things everyone wants to know are—How Soon Do We Get Them—and—How Much—," he said.

Stearns was summoned to Woodstock Monday to attend a McHenry county court hearing in connection with a fire which destroyed two barns on a farm owned by Donald Price, Hebron, and tenanted by Harold Wappler. The fire was reported to have been set by three youths, 14, 16 and 17 years of age, respectively. One of the youths has been placed on a year's probation. The other two are said to be held at the present time on another charge, and their hearings in connection with the fire have not been held as yet.

A house purchased at Cross lake by Mrs. Olive Hansen was moved through town Monday by T. M. Pa-laske, via Orchard street to its new location on Hillside avenue.

Mrs. Albert Pedersen of Pedersen's bakery was taken to a Waukegan hospital by the Antioch Rescue squad Monday evening. She is reported to be ill with pneumonia.

Check Erosion

It is particularly urgent that eroded land be given attention to prevent the spread of damage to good cropland. Tree-planting is one means of establishing a protective cover on many areas of eroding land. Trees not only provide good cover which checks erosion, but will eventually make the land productive through crops of fenceposts, fuel wood and even lumber. Tree-planting is a between-season job which can be done in the early spring, before the ground has dried enough to permit general field work. It takes about 1,000 trees to plant an acre, and two men can plant 500 trees a day.
